A SPECIAL EDITION!!!

Changes to standards and model curriculum are posted

In compliance with Am. Sub. S.B.165, the Ohio Department of Education (ODE) has revised and posted syllabi and model curriculum for the high school American History and American Government courses. ODE has also posted the revised model curricula for grades four and eight. To access these, visit the College and Career Ready (Ohio Revised) Standards in Social Studies page or click here. An FAQ can be accessed in the ODE's home page. It is one of four rotating updates in the center of the page.

Here are the changes.

American History

Additional content statements and associated model curriculum entries will be found listed under the "Historic Documents" topic, content statements 5 – 9.

American Government

Additional content statements and associated model curriculum entries will be found listed under the:

- "Basic Principles of the U.S. Constitution" topic, content statements 6, 8 – 13; and
- "Ohio's State and Local Governments" topic, content statement 18.

Grade 8

There are no additional content statements. Additions were made to the model curriculum (i.e., content elaborations, instructional strategies, instructional resources, or connections) for content statements 5, 6, 7, 20 and 21. An edit was also made to expectation for learning for content statement 21.

Grade 4

There are no additional content statements. Additions were made to the model curriculum (i.e., content elaborations, instructional strategies, instructional resources, or connections) for content statements 2, 4, 5, 9, 15, 19, 20 and 21.
