Public Institutions of Higher Education Participating in Dual Enrollment Progı
(Programs Established under Ohio Revised Code section 3313.6013)

[1] Students may also earn college credit based on the score obtained on an Advanced Placemer
Check with your local school district to see what other dual enrollment programs are available
[2] All public institutions of higher education participate in the post-secondary enrollment optio
[3] Information for "other dual enrollment" was submitted by institutions of higher education to Regents.

Institution Name	Post-secondary Enrollment Option [2]
Belmont College	X
Bowling Green State University	X
Central Ohio Technical College	X
Central State University	X
Cincinnati State Technical and Community College	X
Clark State Community College	X
Cleveland State University	X
Columbus State Community College	X
Cuyahoga Community College	X
Eastern Gateway Community College	X
Edison State Community College	X
Hocking Technical College	X
James A Rhodes State College	X
Kent State University	X
Lakeland Community College	X
Lorain County Community College	X
Marion Technical College	X
Miami University	X
North Central State College	X
Northwest State Community College	X
Ohio State University	X
Ohio University	X
Owens Community College	X
Shawnee State University	X
Sinclair Community College	X
Southern State Community College	X
Stark State College	X
Terra State Community College	X
University of Akron	X
University of Cincinnati	X
University of Toledo	X
Washington State Community College	X
Wright State University	X
Youngstown State University	X

rams [1]

nt course examination.

e.

n program.

the Ohio Board of

Other Dual Enrollment [3]
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X
X