

Lisa Woods, District 5

Ohio native, Lisa Woods, is a mother of five with experience in schooling her children through public, home, private and online schooling. Lisa has undergone 18 years of school with her children thus far and looks forward to five more years until her youngest son graduates high school.

Lisa and her husband Jim founded the nonpartisan group Medina County Friends And Neighbors (MCFAN) in 2008 as a vessel of citizen education on local, county and state issues. In the course of her time leading MCFAN Lisa has had the privilege of forming relationships with countless elected officials and constituents like herself.

Lisa resides in York Township of Medina County with her three youngest children as her oldest son is recently married and her second eldest daughter attends college out of state.

She was elected to the State Board of Education in November 2016 and is eligible for re-election November 2020.
