Interpretive, Interpersonal, and Presentational

Unit Description
In this multiple-day unit, students will practice what they learned in Kindergarten – words, phrases and sentences to identify weather and seasons and simple expressions of their feelings to the seasons. Additionally, students will learn more vocabulary related to the weather in each season. Finally, students will be introduced to the tradition of Qīngmíng jié (The Pure Brightness Day) observed in spring.

Performance Outcomes
Students will be able to:
- Identify and speak clearly the basic weather: 晴天 qíng tiān (sunny), 阴天 yīn tiān (cloudy), 暖和 nuăn huó (warm), 很热 hēn rè (very hot), 很冷 hēn lěng (very cold), 刮风 guā fēng (windy), 雾/有雾 wù/yǒu wù (foggy), etc.
- Speak using the complete model sentences: 刮风了 guā fēng le (It is windy); 下雪了 xià xuĕ le (it is snowing).
- Ask and answer simple questions about seasons and weather pointing to picture/flash card: 这是什么季节? zhè shén me jì jié? (What is this?), 这是春天。zhè shì chūn tiān.
- Learn a conversational dialogue to discuss the weather on that day: “今天天气好吗? (How is the weather today?)” “好，今天是晴天 (Good, it is a nice day.).” “不好，今天下雨. (Not good, it is raining.)”
- Express themselves using like and dislike sentences using the new vocabulary learned in this unit: “晴天 qíng tiān (I like sunny weather), “阴天 yīn tiān. (I dislike/don’t like cloudy weather.)

Culture Outcomes
Students will be able to:
- Place three major Chinese festivals correctly in the proper seasons: 春节 chūn jié (Spring Festival) celebrated in winter, 中秋节 zhōng qiū jié (Moon Festival) celebrated in fall, and 清明节 Qīngmíng jiè (The Pure Brightness Day) observed in spring.

Time Frame/Estimated Duration: Nine classes / Four and one half hours

General Tips from the Writers
- Review and practice the vocabulary and structures learned in Kindergarten.
- Use visuals, pictures and flash cards to assist students in identifying a sunny day, a cloudy day, a foggy day, etc.
- Encourage students to write the radical “雨” in this unit. Characters that share the same radical include: 雲 (云 cloud), 雪 (snow), 雷 (thunder), 霧 (fog), 霜 (frost), and 霰 (hail). Do not hold students accountable for reading all these characters as long as they get to know the radical in the characters represents “precipitations” from the sky.

Pre-Assessment
Hand out four characters and four pictures that represent the four seasons (See Attachment A, Pre-Assessment Activities), and ask students to match the characters to the corresponding season.

Pre-Assessment Scoring Guidelines
- 3: Able to identify four seasons matched by characters
- 2: Able to identify 2-3 seasons matched by characters
- 1: Has difficulty identifying more than one season with correct characters
- 0: Has no knowledge of seasons

Unit Assessments and Scoring Guidelines

Interpretive Assessment
