<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Personal Choice and Vision</td>
<td>Students construct and solve problems of personal relevance and interest when expressing themselves through music.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Critical and Creative Thinking</td>
<td>Students combine and apply artistic and reasoning skills to imagine, create, realize and refine musical works in conventional and innovative ways and to understand the works produced and performed by others.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Authentic Application &amp; Collaboration</td>
<td>Students work individually and in groups to focus ideas, create and perform music to address genuine local and global community needs.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Literacy:</td>
<td>As consumers, critics and creators, students evaluate and understand visual and performing artworks and other texts produced in the media forms of the day.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Progress Points

Students will, at the appropriate developmental level:

- A. Analyze, practice and perform a musical selection independently or collaboratively with technical accuracy and expression.
- B. Read, write, improvise and describe music using standard musical notation and vocabulary.
- C. Apply problem-solving and critical thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting and medium.
- D. Classify and describe composers and historical musical periods, including classical, popular and traditional American music and musical and cultural blends.
- E. Compare and contrast ways that the subject matter in musical selections relates to other disciplines.
- F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Content Statement

1RE Develop criteria to evaluate the quality and effectiveness of music performances and compositions including their own.

Enduring Understandings: Personal Choice and Vision, Critical and Creative Thinking, Authentic Application and Collaboration, Literacy

Progress Points:
- A. Analyze, practice and perform a musical selection, independently or collaboratively, with technical accuracy and expression.
- C. Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting or medium.
- F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Essential Question

What are the criteria for evaluating effectiveness and quality of musical performances and compositions?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …

- Lists of criteria about musical quality and effectiveness come about through listening, thinking about and discussing musical performances;
- People, individually and collectively, focus on certain general criteria drawn from musical elements and performance practices to evaluate performances or compositions;
- How criteria are applied may vary with a certain performance or piece or according to their application by differing listeners.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …

- Describing performances of pieces in elemental terms;
- Reading reviews of music and explaining why different writers may stress some criteria more than others.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …

- Guided listening and describing what’s going on in music, elementally;
- Listening to, reading and discussing different opinions about the important criteria in determining quality and how music elements are involved;
- Questioning.

Essential Questions
What is “reflection” when discussing musical performances? How does live music differ from recorded music?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- People’s perceptions shared through reflection will vary;
- Reflections will vary with individuals’ or group criteria developed by listeners;
- Reflection on different varieties of music will vary depending on the perceptions of a given person.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Discussion and decision about what "reflection" will entail in a given situation or performance;
- Contributing to discussion on performance and explaining how others’ reflection and opinions have influenced understanding of a piece;
- Discussing whether there is a difference between live and recorded music performances.

Essential Question
What subject matter is common between music and other subject areas?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn ...
- Music (and the arts) subject matter (especially performance in music) contrasts with “work” in other subject areas;
- Certain disciplines have more connections and contrasts with music than others;
- The commonality of subject matter depends up the “lens” used in the comparison and contrast (e.g., history, time, elements, function).

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by ...
- Explaining what matter connects across disciplines and what does not;
- Comparing and contrasting at least one pairing of disciplines in terms of subject matter (e.g., history/music; literature/music; other art/music);
- Explaining how, when and where parallel concepts help students and teachers connect with and understand more about each discipline.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by ...
- Examples of comparison and contrast across disciplines in concepts and processes based on “lens” used;
- Listening to recordings and performances;
- Solving a problem that requires examination of common subject matter across disciplines;

Enduring Understandings: Critical and Creative Thinking, Authentic Application and Collaboration

Progress Points:
- C. Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit context, story, setting and medium.
- D. Classify and describe composers and historical musical periods, including classical, popular and traditional American music and musical and cultural blends.

Essential Question: What music elements help to identify various styles and historical periods in music?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- The development of music during the major historical periods;
- Music varies dependent upon when it was written and is unique in genre and style;
- Various musical styles and genres, specific composers of those styles, in addition to the origin and historical aspects of the selection.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Presenting regarding major historical periods, genres and composers;
- Discussing the developmental aspects of Western and non-Western music;
- Performance of various instruments and the human voice that can characterize a different culture or period time in history.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …

Essential Question
How has history impacted the creation of music?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn ...
- Social and historical events have a direct impact on style, genre and instrumentation of a musical selection;
- Musical historical periods can be defined by historical and cultural events.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by ...
- Synthesizing identifying characteristics from historical eras in the arts;

Essential Question
When playing a varied repertoire from various genres and cultures, what elements of the music are the same and different?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- All genres and culture can be represented in written music and re-created through performance;
- Performing music requires accurate performance across genre and culture.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Applying elements of music (melody, harmony, beat, rhythm, meter, timbre, form and tempo) and reading of music (pitch, rhythm, key) to performing;
- Making connections among culture, genre and expression and how these are represented and performed in music.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Essential Questions
What functions do key signatures serve in notated melodies? Why is it important to know how to read notation in both clefs?

Content Elaborations
- Melody is a combination of pitch and rhythm;
- A clef's position on the staff determines the names of the lines and spaces where key signatures and notes are placed;
- There are differences in note names between the two clefs;
- A key signature replaces most accidentals in scales and melodies;
- Sharps and flats in key signatures occur in a certain relative order.

Expectations for Learning
- Students will demonstrate this by …
  - Reading and performing melodies in treble and bass clefs using key signatures;
  - Notating melodies in treble and bass clefs using key signatures;
  - Comparing melodies with accidentals vs. a key signature.

Instructional Strategies and Resources
- Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …
  - Direct instruction in music theory with focus on reading and writing melodies and key signatures;
  - Questioning;
  - Discussion.

</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Enduring Understandings: Personal Choice and Vision, Authentic Application and Collaboration, Critical and Creative Thinking, Literacy

Progress Points:

A. Analyze, practice and perform a musical selection, independently or collaboratively, with technical accuracy and expression.

C. Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting and medium.

F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Essential Questions

How are the criteria for evaluating effectiveness and quality of musical performances and compositions applied by professional music critics and nonprofessionals? What causes variation in the criteria and number of criteria used by different people?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …

- The process of applying criteria to evaluate quality and effectiveness in the arts is called criticism;
- People, individually and collectively, apply certain general criteria drawn from musical elements and performance practices to evaluate performances or compositions, though criteria and how and how many are applied—may vary with a certain performance or piece according to their application by differing listeners.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …

- Describing performances of pieces in elemental terms;
- Applying developed criteria to music heard and described as a path to music criticism;
- Reading reviews of performances and explaining what criteria they applied to their critique and why different writers may stress some criteria more than others.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …

- Guided listening; describing what’s going on in music, elementally;
- Reading and discussing music criticism, especially how criteria are applied differently by various critics;
- Questioning, specifically on applying criteria to description of and opinion of effectiveness of compositions and performances.

- E. Compare and contrast ways that the subject matter in musical selections relates to other disciplines.
- F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Essential Questions
- How does audience reaction and behavior vary based on type of music presented? Venue in which presented? Whether recorded or live?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …

- Audiences react and behave differently depending on the type of music presented and/or the venue;
- Reactions have varied historically in concert situations, e.g., applause between movements, talking and eating during concerts, attire for audiences;
- How we came to a general etiquette for attendance at concerts of classical music, jazz, and rock and how listeners adapt to the venue and music type.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …

- Describing, comparing and contrasting various audience behavior patterns seen in videos of varying live concerts or seen at live concerts;
- Outlining general audience etiquette for a modern concert and how it may vary depending on music type and venue.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …

- Guided listening; describing differences in listening to live vs. recorded music;
- Reading and discussing articles and blogs on etiquette and audience behavior and reaction at music and arts presentations;
- Questioning and discussion, specifically on how audiences might behave differently when listening to recorded vs. live music or when listening to jazz vs. classical music.

Student Performance Tasks

Compare and contrast a carefully selected work or excerpt by two composers (same or differing styles depending on prior student instruction); consider selection of same type of piece (e.g., overture) or same program by different composers (e.g., based on a legend or folks tale from composer's nation or ethnic group).

</table>

Enduring Understandings: Personal Choice and Vision, Critical and Creative Thinking, Authentic Application and Collaboration
Progress Points: C, Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting and medium.

Essential Questions

- How does a particular musical performance affect audience response? A particular setting/venue? How do these factors interact? Nonmusical factors?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn ...

- Audiences respond differently depending on the type of music performed;
- Audiences respond differently depending on the venue/setting in which the performance is held;
- Audience response may vary depending on the qualities of the venue and performance (e.g., acoustics in venue; quality of playing or singing of performers) or according to nonmusical factors (e.g., the venue’s temperature is too hot, too cold).

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by ...

- Expressing (describe, compare and contrast) various audience responses where music varies, venue varies, or some combination of the two — live or video;
- Describing how audience responses may differ in different time periods when hearing the same music in differing settings; differing music in same setting and so on.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by ...

- Guided listening at live performances in differing venues or with differing music;
- Discussing reactions of audiences to different performances of varied music; same piece in different settings; speculation on reasons for audience reaction (e.g., applause) in recorded or broadcast performances;
- Discussion of articles and blogs about audience reaction at music and arts presentations.

Enduring Understandings: Personal Choice and Vision, Critical and Creative Thinking, Literacy

Progress Points:
- B. Read, write, improvise and describe music using standard musical notation and vocabulary.
- C. Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting and medium.

Essential Questions
What determines which criteria are applied in making and supporting musical choices? In writing comparative critiques?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- Choices must be made in application of criteria (from elements, artistic principles, and processes) in expressing preference for a selection or style;
- That one should be able to explain criteria he or she uses to make choices among musical works (e.g., “___ is/are used/manipulated in this piece and that is why I prefer it”).

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Describing preference for a piece or genre in formal (elements, principles, processes) terms and criteria developed to support preference;
- Reading reviews of performances and preferences and describing what criteria writers apply and why, especially in comparing pieces.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …
- Guided listening with emphasis on choosing and supporting choices;
- Reading and discussing expressions of preference;
- Questioning, specifically on how criteria are used effectively in supporting musical preferences.

Enduring Understandings: Personal Choice and Vision, Critical and Creative Thinking, Literacy

Progress Points:
- B. Read, write, improvise and describe music using standard musical notation and vocabulary.
- C. Apply problem-solving and critical-thinking skills to music listening and performing by adapting music to fit the context, story, setting and medium.
- E. Compare and contrast ways that the subject matter in musical selections relates to other disciplines.
- F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Essential Question: How are common terms among the arts (elements, principles, processes) alike and different in terms of how learning takes place in each art?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- There are common element, principle and process names used in more than one of the arts, but varying in use because of how the arts differ;
- There are common concepts and processes in the arts outside the arts' elements (e.g., pattern, repetition);
- There are differing terms sometimes used in differing art forms (e.g., color in music is “timbre”);
- The arts can work together in presentations and works (e.g., opera, musical theater, film, ballet, art and music inspiring each other).

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Comparing common and contrasting musical elements, principles and processes and using them correctly in explaining how ways of learning in the arts (music, visual art, dance, drama) are alike and different.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …
- Comparison of common and contrasting elements, principles and processes across arts;
- Listening to recordings and performances and viewing of visual art;
- Questioning;
- Increasing use of examples of “real world” application of musical and arts terminology, written and spoken.

Enduring Understandings: Critical and Creative Thinking, Literacy

Progress Points:
- D. Classify and describe composers and historical musical periods, including classical, popular and traditional American music and musical and cultural blends.
- E. Compare and contrast ways that the subject matter in musical selections relates to other disciplines.
- F. Expand the use of technology and the media arts through music research, composition and performance.

Essential Question
- How do human roles in the arts differ among the art forms?

Content Elaborations

Students will learn …
- There are similar or parallel human roles in the arts (e.g., dancer, singer, player, actor, painter; similar: prompters used in music, opera and theater);
- There are human roles in the arts specific to each art form (e.g., pottery in art);
- The conceptual and process similarities among the arts (e.g., rehearsal in dance, theater, music and performance art) also carry over into roles.

Expectations for Learning

Students will demonstrate this by …
- Identifying human roles and functions in music, art, theater and dance and “what people ‘do’” in each of the arts;
- Describing the degree to which functions are alike, similar and different among arts;
- Explaining which roles or processes among the arts often work together in arts presentations and why.

Instructional Strategies and Resources

Students will be engaged and supported in learning by …
- Comparison of common and contrasting elements, principles and processes across arts disciplines;
- Using role or job descriptions across arts from online and technological sources; “real world” application;
- Questioning and comparing;
- Guests from various arts positions and jobs.

Student Performance Tasks
Choose a recorded excerpt from two (or three) art forms to compare, but first describe orally, in writing or in a presentational format what each person's role was in creating the performance and how that work affects the final outcome. Compare and contrast the roles among the excerpts.
