

Ohio's Assessment System

Reading

Student Item Cards

Diagnostic Measure
Form B

of

she

they who come

all went

this very

are

Janet's Doghouse

1. What color did Janet paint her doghouse?

blue

green

black

2. What did Mom do?

built the doghouse

found the paint

bought the puppy

3. Why was Janet sad?

There was no green paint for her doghouse.

The doghouse would not be finished in time.

Her mother could not find the paint.

4. How did Janet's Grandpa help?

He drove them to get the puppy.

He made the paint that Janet needed.

He carried the doghouse out to the yard.

5. Do you think Janet was excited about her new puppy?

yes

no

How do you know?

6. How did Janet feel about her doghouse at the end of the story?

sad

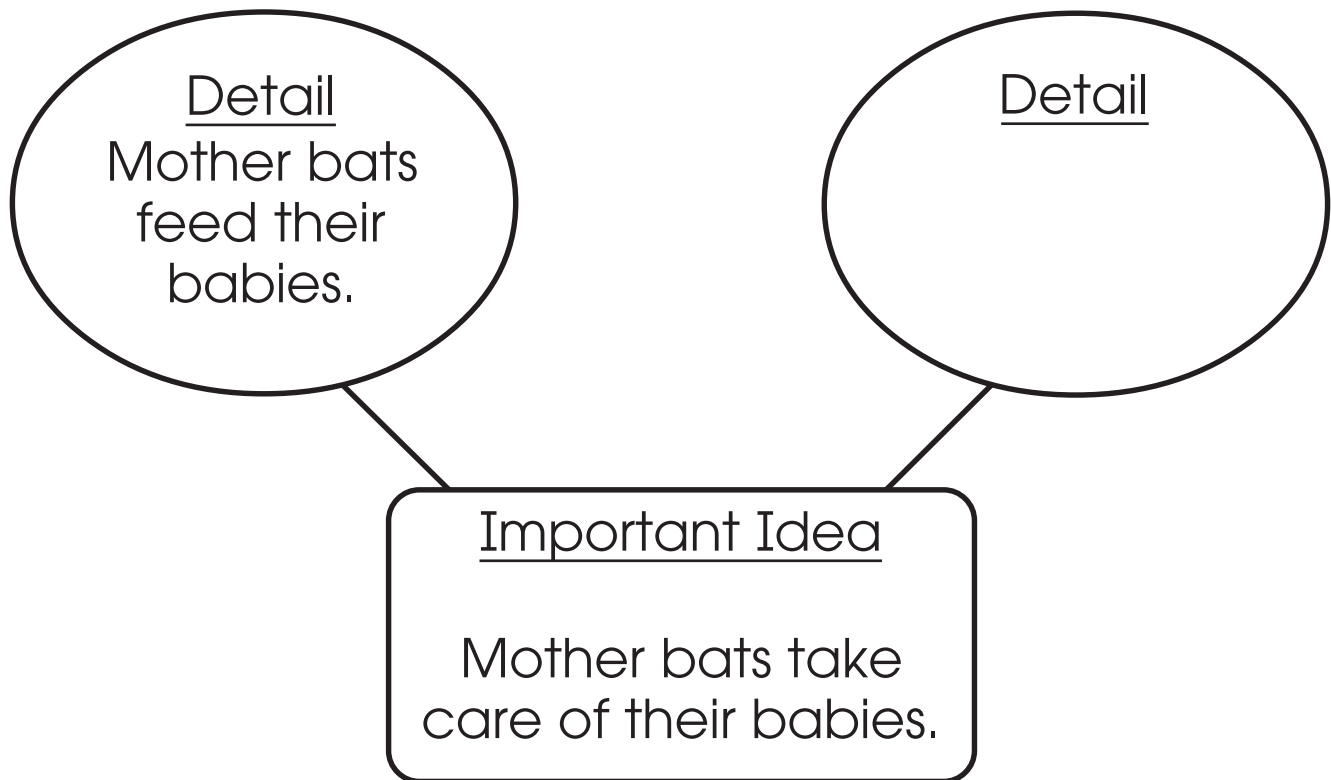

proud

Point to the sentence that tells you how she felt.

Bats

1. According to the story, tell one place a bat likes to live.

2. An important idea in the story is that mother bats take care of their babies. One way mother bats take care of their babies is by feeding them. According to the story, what is another way mother bats take care of their babies?

-
3. According to the story, which of these senses is most important to bats?

seeing hearing

Show me the sentence in the story that tells why this sense is so important

4. These are three things that happen when a bat hunts for food.

The bat flies to the bug.

The bat makes a squeaking sound.

The bat catches the bug.

Point to what the bat does first.

Point to what the bat does next.

Point to what the bat does last.

5. What is an important idea of the story?

Bats help us because they eat bugs.

Bats are scary because they sleep upside down.

Bats sleep during the day and fly at night.

6. Bats, birds and flies are things that swim.

things that fly.

things that have feathers.