Good morning,

Thank you for your interest in EMIS and public comment for EMIS change 23-60. The new program code is separate from the tuition type code and will be used for different purposes and concepts. You should continue to report tuition as you have typically done in the past and should use this new program code, independently, when accurate.

Thank you,

I'm confused why there will be a new Program Code instead of a new Tuition Type, thereby collecting Tuition information in two different places.

Will Preschool students falling under this category also need reported with FS Tuition Type = D (parent pays tuition for grades other than KG)?

Thanks!
