

State Board District 5 Sharyn Kish

Sharyn Kish is a passionate, innovative kindergarten teacher at Memorial Elementary School in Brunswick City School District. Her career in Brunswick began in 2005, when she taught first and second grades. Sharyn holds several leadership roles in addition to teaching, including being the early learning teacher coordinator for her school. She is a member of the Brunswick Schools district leadership team and Memorial Elementary building leadership team and serves on many district-level professional curricular committees. She also has led professional development within her district. Sharyn earned a Consistently High Performing Teacher status from the Ohio Department of Education in 2019. In the 2018-2019 school year, she also was nominated for the Homer B. Smith Teacher of the Year Award in Medina County. She also has been selected as a Google Innovator for her WriteReader ambassadorship.

Sharyn's career in education began in 1993 in Berea City Schools. Before coming to Brunswick City Schools, Sharyn taught preservice education classes at Baldwin Wallace University from 2001 to 2005. She helped develop many future elementary teachers in this role.

She earned her bachelor of science in elementary education from Baldwin Wallace University in 1993 and her master of arts in reading from Baldwin Wallace in 1998. She works continually to expand her knowledge of teaching and learning by taking part in a wide selection of professional growth opportunities.
