Revised Editions Review Rubric for Kindergarten-Grade 5 English Language Arts Core Curriculum and Instructional Materials

The Revised Editions Review Rubric for Kindergarten-Grade 5 English Language Arts Core Curriculum and Instructional Materials has been created by the Department to review revised editions of already approved core curriculum and instructional materials in ELA on the Department's approved list. Revised editions will undergo a limited review process as the originally submitted edition has already been reviewed and approved. Revised editions will be reviewed for alignment with the science of reading and strategies for effective literacy instruction, as well as alignment to Ohio's Learning Standards for English Language Arts adopted in 2017 (referenced as "standards" in the indicators).

Intended Use of the Rubric

Criterion

Criterion is a combination of all indicators within a single focus area in ELA and Literacy, which identify markers of high-quality instructional materials. The nine criterion areas, found across Parts 1-6 of this rubric, provide a brief description at the top of each section and each Criterion is scored based on the Indicators totals.

Indicators

Indicators are in the left-hand column and grouped by Criterion. Reviewers use Guiding Questions and evidence to score Indicators within each Criterion.

Scoring

The middle column indicates possible scores for a given indicator.

Comments

The right-hand column provides explanatory notes to describe the score given based on evidence provided for a given indicator.

Key Shifts in the Ohio Learning Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy

The Ohio Learning Standards for English Language Arts and Literacy reflect the skills and knowledge students will need to succeed in college, career, and life. Using the standards and understanding the necessary shifts they call for are essential for high-quality instruction. The following are the key shifts:

Shift 1: Complexity

The Ohio Learning Standards call for regular practice with complex text and its academic language. This includes scaffolding of text complexity over the course of the year, a focus on appropriately rigorous text in relation to quantitative analysis, qualitative analysis, and task measures.

Shift 2: Evidence

The Ohio Learning standards ground reading, writing, and speaking in evidence from text, both literary and informational. Rather than asking students questions they can answer solely from their prior knowledge or experience, students should be able to answer a range of text-dependent questions.

Shift 3: Knowledge

Building knowledge through content-rich nonfiction plays an essential role in the standards. This requires a balance between reading informational and literacy texts, and that students build coherent general knowledge both within each year and across years, with opportunities for students to engage, interact, and have a conversation with the text.

Review Use

Materials submitted for review will be evaluated on parts of the rubric, dependent on the review category/grade band identified. The rubric will be used to evaluate all grade levels within the grade band for the program as a whole.

Notation Key

Some indicators throughout part 2 have notations directly related to the grade-level appropriate content or skill, which is marked with the corresponding K, 1 or 2 within a set of parentheses.

Non-Negotiable Requirement

Non-Negotiable Requirement
Category	Criteria	Met/Not Met	Evidence
Three-Cueing Approach	Materials do not include the three-cueing approach or model of teaching students to read based on meaning, structure and syntax, and visual cues.
The non-negotiable requirement will be evaluated as Met or Not Met. If any portion of submitted materials includes instructional methods or practices that rely on the three-cueing approach as a model of teaching students to read based on meaning, structure and syntax, and visual cues, applications will not be considered to meet criteria for this non-negotiable requirement. All evidence of not meeting this non-negotiable requirement, if applicable, will be documented by reviewers.
