Welcome
Meeting Norms

✓ Be respectful.
✓ Recognize that everyone has expertise.
✓ Assume positive intent.
✓ Seek clarification in language and ideas.
✓ Share relevant experiences.
Financial Literacy License Validation

- Beginning in 2024-2025 school year, teachers delivering this instruction must hold a valid license validation.
- Individual must hold a valid educator license.
- Following licensure areas can provide instruction without needing to obtaining the licensure validation:
  - Social studies
  - Family and consumer sciences
  - Business education
Who Can Obtain A Financial Literacy Validation?

• An individual shall hold one of the following:
  – Professional Teaching License
  – Resident Educator Teaching License
  – Alternative Resident Educator License
  – Permanent Training Certificate
  – Non-Tax Certificate (Chartered Nonpublic Schools Only)
Financial Literacy Licensure Validation Advisory Committee

in Ohio Revised Code, 3319.238, License Validation

(C) Prior to adopting rules under division (B) of this section, the state board shall establish and consult with an advisory committee of at least four classroom teachers and one expert in financial literacy instruction for classroom teachers. The classroom teachers shall include a representative of each of the following:

1. The Ohio council of teachers of mathematics;
2. The Ohio council for the social studies;
3. The Ohio business educators association;
4. The Ohio association of teachers of family and consumer sciences
Financial Literacy Licensure Workgroup Survey Results

• Option 1: Training and Examination
  – Educator completes district approved training or coursework
  – Educator passes a State Board of Education approved examination

• Option 2: Supplemental Licensure Pathway
  – Educator Secures employment in a position requiring a validation
  – Educator passes a State Board of Education approved examination
  – Educator works successfully under a mentor for two years
Financial Literacy Licensure Workgroup Survey Results

- Training and Examination: 6
- Supplemental Licensure Pathway: 2
- Other: 3
Proposed Rule Language - Requirements

• Issued to an individual who holds one of the following:
  – Professional Teaching License;
  – Resident Educator Teaching License;
  – Alternative Resident Educator License;
  – Permanent Training Certificate;
  – Non-Tax Certificate (Chartered Nonpublic Schools Only);
• Is deemed of good moral character;
• Completes a school or district approved training in financial literacy aligned to Ohio’s learning standards in financial literacy; and
• Passes a State Board of Education approved examination.
“If the educator and the employing school or district both agree that the educator, based upon evidence of the educator’s previous education, work experience, or teaching experience in the area of financial literacy, would not benefit from completion of the school or district approved training in financial literacy, the educator is not required to complete the school or district approved training in financial literacy”
Share your learning community with us!

#MyOhioClassroom

Celebrate educators!

#OhioLovesTeachers