

Intermediate Low/Mid – Cultural Celebrations

Backward Design of a Latin Intercultural Unit and Assessment

This sample intercultural unit shows the detailed step-by-step process for Backward Design planning. For each step of the process, the left column provides an explanation and links to relevant resources from the Ohio World Languages and Cultures Model Curriculum. All curricula will be developed at the local level.

Note that Backward Design is an integrated, non-linear process. Moving backward and forward throughout the template is expected. Most important is that there are strong intercultural and communicative learning outcomes, and that assessments and activities build reliably toward those outcomes.

Intercultural Learning Outcomes

Choose the intercultural communication goals for this unit. Sample intercultural progress indicators for each proficiency level can be found in both the Ohio World Languages and Cultures Learning Standards and in the NCSSFL-ACTFL Intercultural Can-Do Statements

- Intercultural learning outcomes focus on investigation of products, practices and perspectives in the learner's native culture and the target culture(s), as well as interactions using culturally appropriate language and behavior.
- Using intercultural outcomes to drive communication will help the teacher focus on the relevant content, vocabulary and structures that learners need to know to be successful.

Authentic Cultural Resources

Choose authentic cultural resources that are relevant to the learning outcomes of this unit.

- ACTFL defines authentic texts as content that has been created “by members of a language and culture group for members of the same language and culture group.” Authentic materials provide cultural perspectives and real-life examples of everyday language use and are a rich source of input needed for language acquisition. Exposure to authentic materials begins at the Novice Low level.
- Ohio’s K-12 grid of Interpretive Literacy standards and progress indicators has scaffolding and tasks that promote comprehension of authentic texts and media from Novice Low to Advanced Low. ACTFL has an Interpretive template for literacy-based tasks.
 - These scaffolds and tasks could also be used with textbook or teacher-created materials as a bridge to help beginners access authentic texts as early as possible.
- Novice-level authentic resources include lists, headlines, posters, simple infographics, catalogs, maps, menus, brochures, ads, calendars, short poems, schedules, social media, short podcasts, cartoons, commercials, jingles, songs, etc.
- Intermediate-level authentic resources include infographics, charts, graphs, current events, blogs, poetry, literature, comics, podcasts, social media, informational texts, websites or media, interviews, short or long films, song lyrics, TV shows, etc.

Instructional Strategies

Interpretive Reading and Listening/Viewing Activities

- Read a Latin text about the Parilia, and underline or highlight any words that you recognize.
- Watch a video about the Parilia and write down words that you recognize, or after you are finished watching, retell what you saw using your own words.

Interpersonal Activities

- Create and use graphic organizers, Venn Diagrams or timelines, for support and evidence in the comparison and contrast of the various cultural celebrations discussed.
- As a class and in small group conversations with follow up questions, discuss what year it would be now if the year of the birth of Rome were used as year one or what year would it be now if the year of the founding of the class's hometown were used.
- Discuss whether or not the celebration has made its way into American culture. Explain why/not.
- Classmates pretend that they are in the target culture and preparing for this Roman celebration. Where will the festival be held? What activities will be planned? What foods will be served? How will others know about the festival? Who will be invited? When will it be? Who will plan to do what?
- Classmates invite each other to the celebration and respond to their invitations.
- Classmates discuss the celebration and encourage each other to participate.

Presentational Writing and Speaking

- Prepare a libum from an authentic recipe for the class.
- Create a schedule of tasks to complete in order before the day of the Parilia.
- Create a fresco (or painting or mosaic) of your idea of what the Parilia looked like.
- Leave a voicemail (Google voice) for someone about your plans for the Parilia.
- Write a thank-you letter to a guest or the host after the Parilia.
- Recreate a component of the Parilia (dress, decoration, music, dance, etc.) and present it to the class - live or recorded.
- Create a comparison board of the Parilia vs. our Independence Day in Latin. Share it in groups. Tell in English why you included the elements that you chose.
- Describe a photo of the Parilia (Suvéé Painting “The Festival of Pales”).

	Contextualized Vocabulary and Structures <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Use vocabulary and grammar/structures in context as part of interpersonal and presentational practice. • For individual student practice, students could use Quizlet or similar websites. • Point out cognates to words in the target language. • Recognize repeated words in the authentic resources. • Sort or classify words. • Match words with definitions. • Identify people, places and things involved in the Parilia. Technology Integration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Create/record asynchronous lessons in Zoom, Loom, Google Meets, Google slides, EdPuzzle, or Nearpod so students can review the material as much as needed. • Use Padlet to host an online discussion. Students can respond to a prompt with text, images, videos, or links. This can be a great tool for pre- or post-reading discussions in the target language, as well as for warm-up activities or exit tickets. • Create a digital pen pal program via videos with Flip. Students can partner with students at the same level in a neighboring school or district, or a school in the target culture. Students can create videos, view their classmates' or pen pals' videos, and respond to one another with comments using Flip. Formative Assessments <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Break down tasks into clear and manageable steps. Respond to questions about expectations once steps are explained and before students begin assignment at hand. • Use the ODE performance rubrics to help students practice self-assessment and reflection. • Use bell ringers, exit slips, simple activities, online games etc., targeting the learning outcomes. • Give informal assessments of individuals in a whole class setting. • Create stations where students can either check in with the teacher or in small groups to clarify any questions students may have. • Assess/give feedback throughout the process, with a focus on progress toward the learning outcomes of the unit.

Magister Craft's "Parilia"

Hodie est dies unus et vicesimus mensis Aprilis. Itaque est dies natalis Romae. Roma condita est anno septingentesimo quinquagesimo tertio DCCLIII a.C.n*. Apud Romanos antiquos hodie erat quoque dies festus. Nomen festo erat Parilia vel Palilia. Pales dea pastorum erat. Curabat pastores. Itaque Parilia erat festum pastorale. Ritus antiquus sic erat: Pastores se et oves aqua purgabant. Fumum fecerunt sanguine equi, cineribus vituli et stipulis fabalibus. Pastores Deae Pali sacrificia privata faciebant. Lac et liba dabantur. Pastores quoque sacrificia publica faciebant et semper lactem et liba dabant. Tum pastores Palem precabantur. Postea pastores lactem et sapam bibebant. Deinde pastores et oves per acervos ardentis ter transiliebant. Tandem pastores et amici cenam magnam sub caelo faciebant. Io Parilia! Felix dies natalis Romae!

*a.C.n. = ante Christum natum, which is now referred to as BCE (before common era) to ensure inclusivity. The Romans would have referred to this date as AUC (ab urbe condita, from the founding of the city).
