Intervention for Elementary Students — Supporting Students in Need of Foundational Skill Intervention

Age/grade band: Kindergarten-grade 5

Presenter: Dr. Timothy Odegard

Required Pre-Reading: Review this guide for identifying and providing instruction to students with characteristics of dyslexia in the early grades.

Recommended Pre-Reading and Viewing: The kindergarten-grade 5 learning strands are developed to support educators in implementing a structured literacy approach to teaching children to read. Please read this brief explanation of structured literacy and view this video introduction prior to participating in the kindergarten-grade 5 learning strands.

Session 1: Screening Assessments

Learning objectives: Participants will be able to compare screening and diagnostic assessments. Participants will be able to describe universal screening practices and identify the components to include in universal screening in kindergarten-grade 3.

Complete prior to viewing video presentation: Review this student literacy profile tool that teams can use to compile available data about a student's literacy skills. This tool can be used to reveal the areas of literacy development that are strengths or weaknesses for a particular student to guide the identification of targets for reading instruction and intervention.

Video presentation (17:33)

Complete after viewing video presentation:

Consider the following questions:

- 1. How does the content of this presentation align to the screening practices currently used in your educational setting?
- 2. How might your team use the student literacy profile tool to plan for instruction or intervention?

Session 2: Designing Instruction and Using Decision Rules

Learning objectives: Participants will be able to describe the characteristics of effective instruction and intensive intervention. Participants will be able to identify and compare organizational intensifiers and instructional intensifiers.

Complete prior to viewing video presentation:

- 1. Read the article "Structured Literacy is Exemplified by an Explicit Approach to Teaching" (pages 21-23).
- 2. Review the sample lesson frames for phonological awareness, letter knowledge and phonics, fluency and decoding and spelling. The lesson frames provide examples of how educators can use information from screening and diagnostic assessments to plan more intensive instruction.

Video presentation (20:39)

Complete after viewing video presentation:

- 1. Discuss with a colleague or team of colleagues the components of instruction included in the sample lesson frames.
- 2. Review your district, school or grade-level intensive intervention decision-making process and develop next steps for implementation with colleagues.

Session 3: Progress Monitoring

Learning objective: Participants will be able to describe the purpose of progress monitoring, identify when progress monitoring occurs and explain what educators consider when selecting a progress monitoring instrument.

Complete prior to viewing video presentation: Read pages 11-13 of the "Dyslexia within RTI guide."

Video presentation (17:00)

Complete after viewing video presentation:

- 1. Review your district, school or grade-level progress monitoring protocol.
- 2. Discuss with a colleague or team of colleagues if the progress monitoring instruments used are sensitive to the changes that should result from the intervention provided and whether the tool provides information on the rate of improvement related to a specific target.
