LEARNING OBJECTIVES FOR THIS SESSION:

- Guidance on how to design and establish a regional literacy network
- Ideas to promote regional collaboration on literacy priorities in Ohio
- Gain practical guidance on how to implement the Ohio Dyslexia Guidebook and MTSS process at the regional level

ESTABLISHING A REGIONAL LITERACY NETWORK

WHY CREATE A REGIONAL NETWORK?

Ohio's Dyslexia Guidebook

Best practices and methods for universal screening, intervention and remediation for children with dyslexia or children displaying dyslexic characteristics and tendencies using a structured literacy program pursuant to Ohio Revised Code Section 3323.25(C).

The Science of Reading is the theory behind our instructional practices. Convergence of research from psychology, education, linguistics, and neuroscience supporting how we learn to read and write.

Structured Literacy is the application of knowledge from the science of reading which teaches children to read in an evidence-based and systematic way.

BENEFITS OF OUR REGIONAL MULTIDISCIPLINARY LITERACY FACILITATOR NETWORK

- Collaboration
- Shared problem-solving & planning
- Updates from Read Ohio and other literacy initiatives are shared
 - Discussions of what these updates imply for districts

STEPS TO BUILD A REGIONAL LITERACY NETWORK

Step 1: Identify key stakeholders to participate in the network

Step 2: Establish structure for the network (frequency of meetings, time of day, length)

Step 3: Develop shared literacy priorities for each meeting (originally based on stepping out assessment process and when districts would need to analyze data, plan for intervention, progress monitor, communication with families, etc.)

Step 4: Generate event description and invite participants

STEPS TO BUILD A REGIONAL LITERACY NETWORK 2

Key Stakeholders: Literacy Specialists, Curriculum Directors, Special Education Directors, Administrators, and Educators who hold a Structured Literacy certification and/or serve as the facilitator of the district's multidisciplinary team analyzing data in relation to Ohio Dyslexia Guidebook.

Structure for Our Network: Half day sessions in the morning, once per month

STEPS TO BUILD A REGIONAL LITERACY NETWORK 3

Event Description & Priorities: Erica Kaufmann, C-SLDI, and Olivia Weisman, CALT, will facilitate this network opportunity for individuals certified in structured literacy and/or district multidisciplinary team members. The network will allow participants from neighboring districts to gain ideas from one another to support the MTSS process as well as implementation of HB 436 and Ohio's Dyslexia Guidebook. Participants will also hear relevant updates on law related to or in support of literacy.

Topics of each network include discussions around the following include but are not limited to: Universal Screening Data Analysis Plans; Documentation of Interventions; Checking in on Interventions and EMIS; Planning for Mid-Year Benchmarks and Kdg. Screening; Screening of Transfer Students; Statewide Literacy Initiative Updates

FACILITATING EFFECTIVE COLLABORATION

Utilize strategies to foster engagement and knowledge sharing:

- Build in team talk time
- Support sharing of resources between districts
- Develop a communication system so all resources are shared in an ongoing manner

ALWAYS LEARNING TOGETHER

- At most sessions, we read an article or ODEW document then have participants complete an activity to learn and discern meaning in our implementation practices.
- This provides team planning time to process the information, ask questions, and plan for next steps.
- The learning topics are constantly evolving as updates are released and based on feedback from the group.

FEEDBACK ON COLLABORATION

- Participants complete a survey after each network meeting.
- A question asked is: What are some topics you would like to dive deeper into next time we meet?

Feedback from our November session

What are some topics you would like to dive deeper into next time we meet?

Adolescent lit

My brain hurts too much after HDT talk to think of something at this time.

Interventions, middle school schedules, adolescent literacy

Modifications and accommodations that are best practices for structured literacy programs we are using (with attention to reading rope skills, specifically).

Approved vendors being used/how

Continue with this path for now.

Interventions

Continued updates an relevant info

Continue conversation on HDT....and maybe what approved interventions everyone is using.

Based on this feedback, topics of our next session were:

- Intervention tools and rubric
- Break out groups exploring ODEW Handwriting Guidance
- Read and discussed an article in relation to adolescent literacy

Screening & Data Driven Decision Making

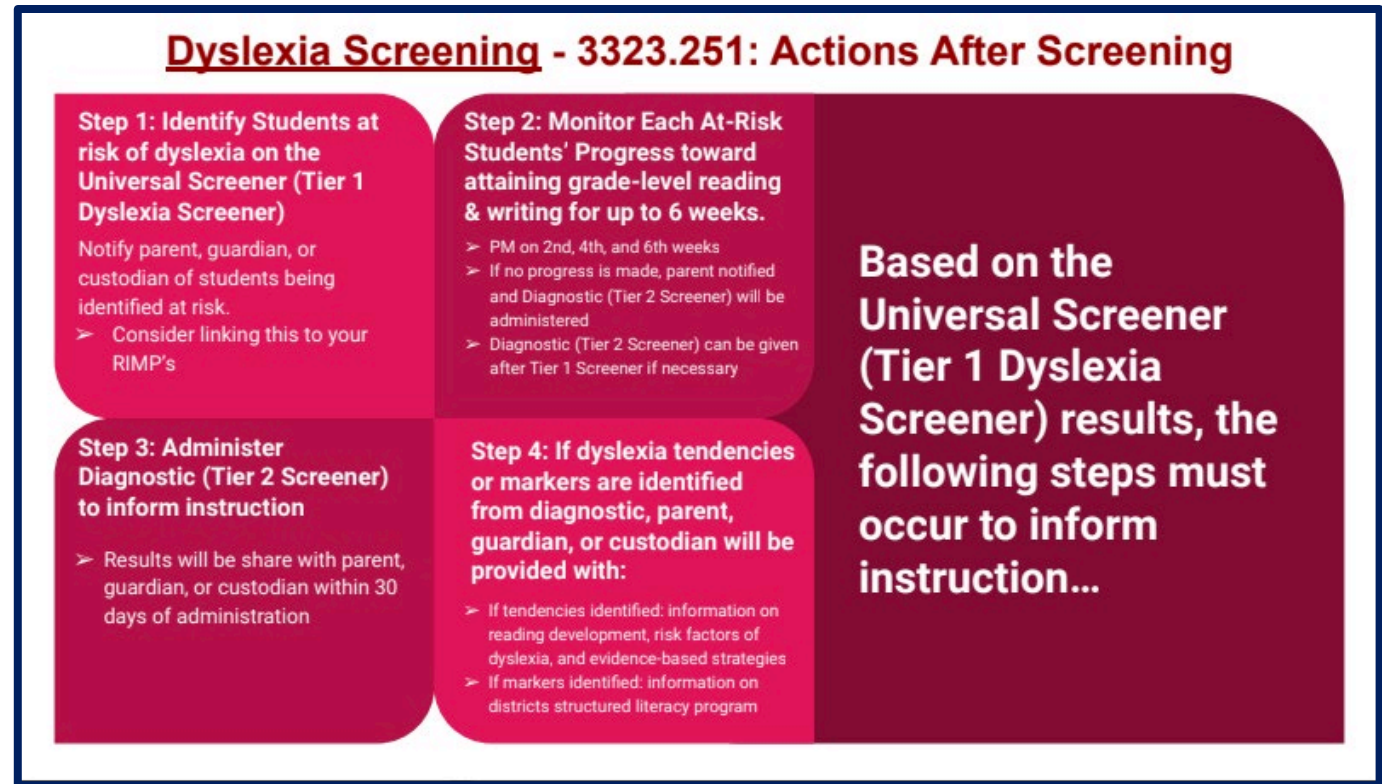

Progress Monitoring

Intervention

SCREENINGS & DATA DRIVEN DECISION MAKING

- Initially, districts had varying levels of understanding regarding the screening process.
- Our efforts centered on strengthening the knowledge base around dyslexia screening, always emphasizing best practices.
- Connecting to Tier 1: What is our screening data telling us?

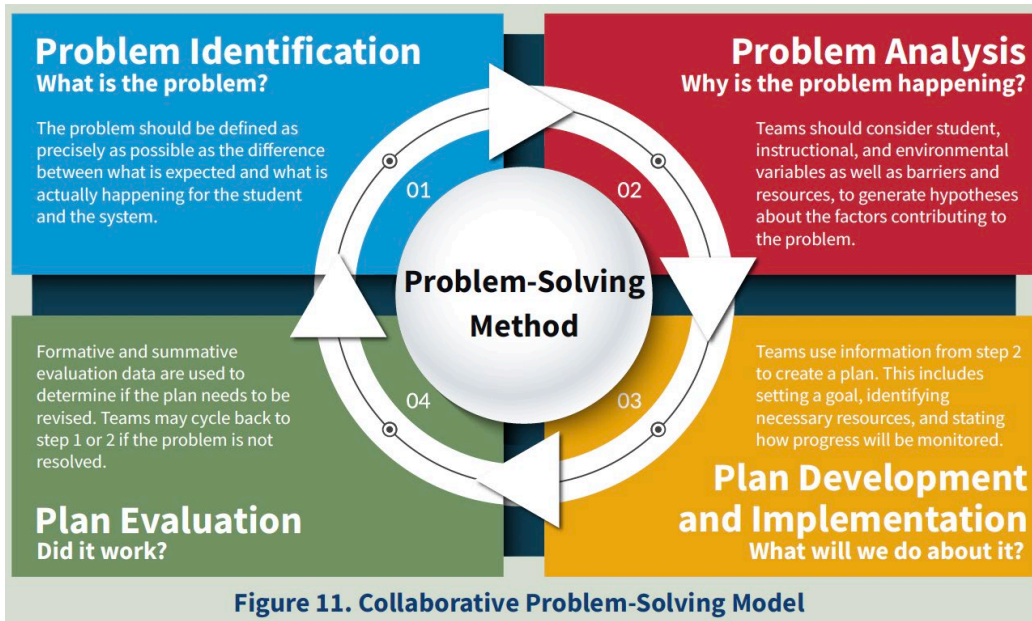

INTERVENTION

After the initial screening process, we offer guidance on the next steps, including Tier 2 diagnostics and aligning data with targeted interventions.

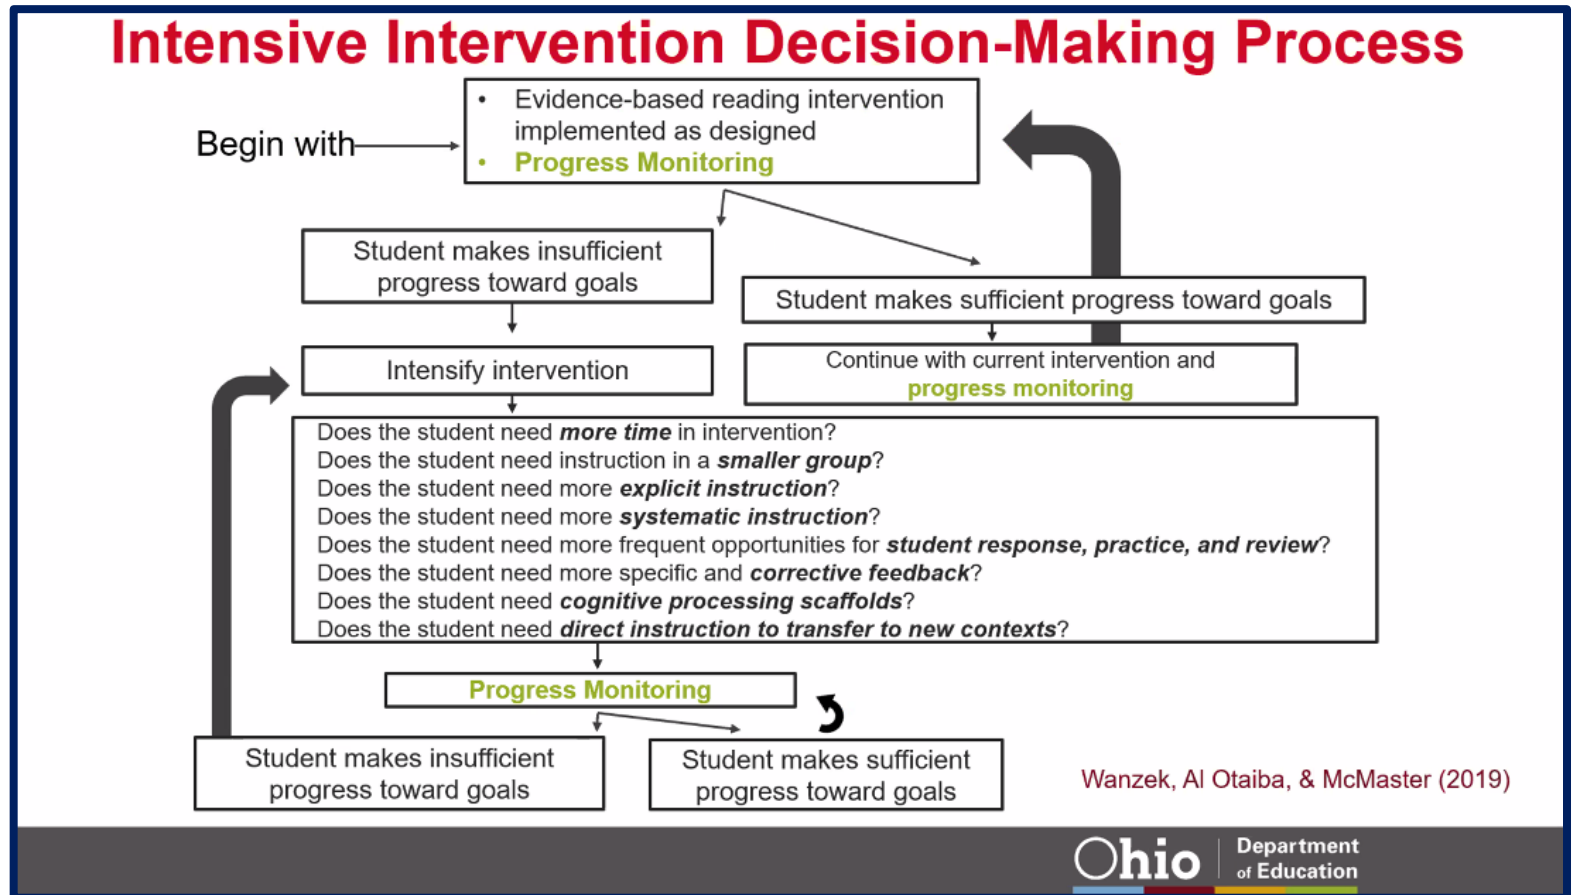

Our ongoing priority is implementing best practices in structured literacy instruction while ensuring alignment with state and district goals.

The critical role of MTSS in literacy instruction and the integration of dyslexia-specific supports in the MTSS framework.

PROGRESS MONITORING

Is the work, working?

GOAL OF THIS NETWORK

Initial Goal: Build a network of individuals certified in structured literacy leading multidisciplinary teams.

BUT...many teams did not have an individual certified in structure literacy.

SO...we extended the invite to all those leading teams. Now there is more urgency and understanding for the need to get more individuals certified.

OUR NETWORK IS A JOURNEY, NOT A DESTINATION

Network participants had to:

- Trust in each other
- Identify barriers
- Work together
- Be willing to challenge our current thinking
