

Classes of 2021 and 2022 – Testing and Graduation Requirements for Public and Chartered Nonpublic School Students

Classes of 2021 and 2022
Testing or Graduation Requirement	Public School Students	ISACS-Accredited Nonpublic School Students		Non-ISACS-Accredited Nonpublic School Students (all students)
		Non-Voucher Students	Voucher Students
Testing	Take both of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A national college admissions test (the ACT or SAT); AND The seven end-of-course exams. 	No requirement.	Take one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A national college admissions test (the ACT or SAT) and the seven end-of-course exams; OR An alternative test, if the school elects to administer such a test. 	Take one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A national college admissions test (the ACT or SAT) and the seven end-of-course exams; OR Only the ACT or SAT, if the school publishes aggregate test results for the class on the school’s website;² OR An alternative test, if the school elects to administer such a test.
Graduation	In addition to meeting the curriculum requirements of the student’s high school, complete one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Accumulate 18 points based on scores on the seven end-of-course exams; OR Earn a remediation-free score on the ACT or SAT; OR Earn an industry-recognized credential and achieve a workforce-readiness score on the WorkKeys test. Note: A student also may qualify for graduation by meeting the graduation requirements for the Classes of 2023 and later. For more information, see here.	Meet curriculum requirements of the student’s high school.	In addition to meeting the curriculum requirements of the student’s high school, complete one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Accumulate 18 points based on scores on the seven end-of-course exams; OR Earn a remediation-free score on the ACT or SAT; OR Earn an industry-recognized credential and achieve a workforce-readiness score on the WorkKeys test; OR Earn a passing score on an alternative test, if the school elects to administer such a test.¹ Note: A student also may qualify for graduation by meeting the graduation requirements for the Classes of 2023 and later. For more information, see here.	In addition to meeting the curriculum requirements of the student’s high school, complete one of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Accumulate 18 points based on scores on the seven end-of-course exams; OR Earn a remediation-free score on the ACT or SAT; OR Earn an industry-recognized credential and achieve a workforce-readiness score on the WorkKeys test; OR Earn a passing score on an alternative test, if the school elects to administer such a test.¹ Note: A student also may qualify for graduation by meeting the graduation requirements for the Classes of 2023 and later. For more information, see here.

¹ If a nonpublic school elects to administer an alternative test, other graduation pathways, such as the end-of-course exams, may not be an option for the school’s students.

² When publishing test results, the school must include overall composite scores, mean scores, 25th percentile scores, and 75th percentile scores for each subject area.