QUESTIONS FROM THE FIELD

SECTION 7 MINUTES

- Q: There has been a lot of discussion of how to write service minutes on the IEP- weekly, monthly or quarterly. Word is that the use of "quarterly" is not an option, even if the plan for distribution of these minutes is spelled out elsewhere.

Quarterly without language that is clear regarding frequency and duration of services is considered noncompliant. Example: 300 minutes quarterly

Quarterly with language that is clear regarding frequency and duration of services is considered compliant. Example: 10 times per quarter, 30 min per session.

Remember: The frequency and duration of services should be explicitly stated in terms based on the student's educational needs in which they will have the opportunity to progress.

SECTION 7 SDI

- Q: Can anybody provide SDI ? If yes who and what documentation is needed?

A: Not everyone can provide SDI, a qualified individual must deliver SDI.

Please look forward to receiving new Department of Education and Workforce guidance in the near future.

IEP TEAM

- When would counseling services be appropriate for a related service?
- What is the need in the ETR that drives this?
- Is this issue confounded if a student is receiving outside counseling services?

Services are appropriate if the IEP Team decides that those services are needed in the educational setting.

Services are based on the needs of the student in the ETR and what the IEP team decides.

Even though there may be outside private services, these do not dictate what is provided in the educational setting. What is provided in the educational setting is what the IEP Team sees as appropriate.
