The high-quality student data instrument used must be rigorously reviewed by locally determined experts in the field of education to meet all of the following criteria:

- Align to learning standards
- Measure what is intended to be measured
- Be attributable to a specific teacher for course(s) and grade level(s) taught
- Demonstrate evidence of student learning (achievement and/or growth)
- Follow protocols for administration and scoring
- Provide trustworthy results
- Not offend or be driven by bias

AND

The teacher must use the data generated from the high-quality student data instrument by:

- Critically reflecting upon and analyzing available data, using the information as part of an ongoing cycle of support for student learning
- Considering student learning needs and styles, identifying the strengths and weaknesses of an entire class as well as individual students
- Informing instruction, adapting instruction to meet student need based upon the information gained from the data analysis
- Measuring student learning (achievement and/or growth) and progress towards achieving state/local standards
