Ohio Test Security Provisions and Procedures

Test security is vital to the successful administration of state assessments for many reasons, such as:

- Ensuring student results are accurate and meaningful;
- Maintaining confidentiality of tests;
- Safeguarding the investment of resources, time and effort at the school, district and state levels required to develop assessments;
- Avoiding investigations, invalidations or disciplinary actions;
- Upholding the responsibility to the public and stakeholders on the accuracy of scores; and
- Providing accurate measures for use in accountability.

Districts and schools must maintain test and data security before, during and after all test administrations. All individuals who are involved with test administrations in any way must maintain test security. Under no circumstances shall students have access to secure assessment materials or items before or after any test administration.

Districts and schools shall refer to statutory requirements for test security and test incidents (see Appendix F of this document for the complete text). Statutory requirements include:

- Ohio Revised Code (ORC) 3319.151: Confidentiality for State Tests;
- Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) 3301-13-02: Administering State Tests;
- Ohio Administrative Code (ORC) 3301-7-01: Standards for the Ethical Use of Tests.

All online and paper state tests including Ohio’s State Tests (OST), the Ohio Graduation Tests (OGT), the Ohio English Language Proficiency Screener (OELPS), the Ohio English Language Proficiency Assessment (OELPA) and the Alternate Assessment for Students with the Most Significant Cognitive Disabilities (AASCD) are secure. This includes all test passages, test questions and any other secure material developed for use with any operational test. Practice test materials, Restart Readiness Assessments, state-developed diagnostic tests and released tests are not secure.

Release of Secure Test Material

All test booklets and other secure test materials are subject to the same strict test security procedures per OAC 3301-13-05 (D):

No person shall reveal, cause to be revealed, release, cause to be released, reproduce, or cause to be reproduced any secure assessment materials through any means or medium including, but not limited to, electronic, photographic, photocopy, written, paraphrase, or oral.

All tests and answer documents, including special versions, are kept secure until the day of testing, serially numbered and tracked, and then returned to the scoring contractor. Special versions of the tests include Braille and large print.

Penalty for Revealing Test Questions

ORC 3319.151 prohibits any person from revealing in any manner any questions known to appear on a state test to students who will be taking a test. Releasing any test questions or other contents of a test or helping students cheat in any other way may result in an invalidation of test scores, suspension of licenses, certificates and permits, termination of employment and/or prosecution. Violations of test security provisions in a district’s written procedures may also be punishable by penalties specified by the district.

District Test Policy and Procedures

To protect the security of tests, each district, community school and nonpublic school should establish written procedures that address the following components:

- Identification of personnel authorized to have access to the test;
- Procedures for handling and tracking test materials before, during and after testing;
- Procedures for investigating any alleged violation of test security provisions; and
• Procedures for annually communicating in writing the test security provisions, including but not limited to the Ohio Department of Education’s (Department) electronic device policy and social media policy, and sharing this information with all district employees, families and students.

Districts, community schools and participating chartered nonpublic schools must establish a written test security plan no later than October 1 of each school year. The test security plan must include procedures on test security which includes many areas that are listed in the Ohio Administrative Code (OAC) section 3301-13-05 (H) and (I) (see Appendix F of this document for complete text). The test security plan must be presented to all staff who are involved with state tests. Districts must ensure that students are aware of test security requirements and associated consequences.

Electronic Device Policy

Districts must have a policy on electronic device usage during test sessions. Electronic devices include but are not limited to cellphones, smartwatches and other WIFI-enabled, non-testing devices. Accessing an electronic device during testing is grounds for an invalidation; however, if cheating can be ruled out, the district may elect not to invalidate the test. If a student was observed having a cell phone out during the test session, it is important to determine if any test question, passage or prompt was photographed, texted or in any way compromised. In extreme cases where test questions, passages or prompts have been posted on any social medium, the district must immediately contact the Office of Assessment at 1-614-466-1317.

Districts must determine if electronic devices may be used after the test session is completed. Silent work may be allowed after the completion of a test session and may include electronic devices if this is permitted within district policy and does not pose a threat to test security.

Test administrators may have a cell phone for medical and technological emergencies, to use as a time keeper or to otherwise perform necessary test-related actions. Test administrators must not use the cell phone for non-test related issues or personal reasons. Test administrators should be reminded to never take photographs of students, tests, computers or the testing room during testing.

Social Media

Sharing an image of a test item or a description in words on social media or other public platforms is a test security violation, as well as cheating. All students deserve a fair testing experience. Sharing images of test items via Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, Facebook or other public social media sites – or posting a description of or basic information about test items – results in an unfair test environment by providing some students and teachers with advanced information about test questions. This can create an uneven playing field and give some students an advantage over others and impairs the ability of schools to get valuable information about how their students are performing. Also, when test items are compromised, they must be replaced at the expense of Ohio taxpayers.

When the Office of Assessment becomes aware of a test item that has been posted to public social media sites or elsewhere on the internet, it treats it as a test security violation. When the source is identified, the Department works with the district to request the student or individual who posted the item to remove it. Twitter, Facebook and other social media sites all have processes for requesting the removal of copyrighted material which are applied when necessary. Social media and other web pages are public and often include information that indicates the name and location of the person who posted the live test item. The test for the student who posted the secure matter must be invalidated and no breach form will be allowed. The district may be asked to conduct an investigation to determine if the test administrator was actively monitoring the testing session.

Test Incidents

A test incident is any event or procedure that may impact a student’s performance on a test or may potentially impact the integrity of tests or test results before, during and after testing.

All reported test incidents and alleged test security violations are confidential. Investigations of irregularities, incidents and violations are not discussed with anyone other than identified staff. Confirmation of a test or data security violation has the potential to affect a student’s score, a staff member’s career and/or a district’s accountability. The investigation (including all details) remains confidential until the case is officially closed. Any requests for data once a case is officially closed are referred to the district. All Ohio schools that administer state tests are required to follow standardized test administration and test security procedures.
Types of Test Incidents

There are three types of test incidents:

- Testing Irregularity: A testing irregularity is an incident that may or may not compromise test results but could affect a student’s performance on the test (for example, a fire alarm is activated in the school). A testing irregularity could also be an unexpected change in the established test administration procedure and protocols that may, or may not, compromise the test result (for example, a student does not receive the appropriate accommodations as determined by an IEP or 504 Plan or a student receives an inappropriate accommodation).

- Test Security Violation: A test security violation is an unethical testing practice or violation of the state or school’s test security procedures that compromises test security, data security or the integrity of a student’s results (for example, an individual uses a cellphone to take pictures of the test).

- Technology Incident: A technology incident is a technology-related event that may or may not compromise test results but could affect the student’s performance on the test (for example, school loses internet access or electric power during the testing session).

For additional guidance on test incidents please refer to the Test Incident Guidance Document located in each Test Administration Manual of a particular test.

Actively Monitor Test Sessions

A test administrator must actively monitor the test session. This includes but is not limited to the following:

- Leading the test session;
- Making sure the student’s enrolled grade level and the grade or grade band of the test match;
- Observing that students are not cheating;
- Monitoring test completion per student;
- Monitoring how much time is left in a test session and student test completion; and
- Walking around the room (the test administrator may sit for short periods but may not be involved with non-test activities listed below).

These are not active monitoring behaviors and may be test security violations:

- Reviewing a test so closely that student responses are clearly examined;
- Being involved with non-test administration activities such as grading papers, completing lesson plans, completing tasks on an electronic device for a non-test reason or having a cell-phone conversation that is not test related; or
- Leaving the student(s) unattended while the test is still in session. If local policy allows students to leave the room while testing is in progress, students must first get permission from the test administrator. Districts and schools must follow the guidelines set forth under “Breaks” in the Schedules section of this manual.

Test Security Violations

The following are test security violations, which need to be discussed with the Department as soon as the alleged violation is known. This is not an exhaustive list.

Before or during a test administration:

- Test administrator does not have a current license, certificate or permit at the time of the test administration;
- Reading a test booklet or a student’s answer document to review test content or student responses;
- Using a student’s login information to access an online test in order to review the test content;
- Reviewing the test and creating a study guide or in some way releasing test items to students;
- Describing or discussing secure test information (for example, the test items) with anyone at any time;
• Standing over a student who is taking a test and indicating in some manner that the student’s answer is incorrect, blank or deficient;
• Assisting a student in any manner to indicate the correct answer or any answer;
• Changing, revising or deleting a student’s responses with or without the student’s knowledge;
• Recording or noting secure test content and/or student responses;
• Test administrator or monitor looking ahead at test subjects or questions printed in a test booklet or computer;
• Unauthorized persons present during a state test administration;
• Test administrator having a non-test related conversation on a cell phone during the test administration;
• Students with tests or tests being left unattended; and
• A student having a cell phone, smart watch or WiFi-enabled non-testing device during a test administration.

After the test administration:

• Sharing, recording or posting any test content, verbatim or paraphrased, and/or students’ responses before, during or after the test administration;
• Marking, tampering with or contaminating students’ responses in any way, unless by a scribe or test administrator with permission to transcribe students’ responses with no changes;
• Failing to collect and securely shred any scratch paper provided to and used by students during a test and that contains marks or writing made by students;
• Failing to erase or having students erase any whiteboards used by students before or after a test administration;
• Failing to account for and return any secure paper test materials;
• Discussing test questions after the test has been administered;
• Altering any student responses or assisting students to cheat in any other way;
• Releasing secure test material or test items to any person, student, media or the public at any time.

At any point, if staff believe a violation of test security has occurred, staff should contact the building test coordinator about the alleged test security violation. The building test coordinator should report the alleged test security violation to the district test coordinator. The district test coordinator will contact the Department to discuss the situation.

Procedures for a Possible Test Security Violation

- All test incidents must be reported immediately to the district’s designated staff. The designated staff is the District Test Coordinator by default.
- A district shall report to the Office of Assessment as soon as possible after a test security violation becomes known to the district.
- Call the Office of Assessment at 1-614-466-1317. The alleged test security violation will be discussed via telephone. Please do not send any written details unless requested.
- It may be possible to determine during the initial discussion if a test must be invalidated; if so, the procedure for an invalidation and a breach form is discussed.
- The district will be asked to conduct an investigation which may include interviews with students; if so, parents should be made aware of the interviews. While the district may take as long as necessary to complete the investigation, the district is expected to complete the investigation as soon as possible (within two weeks) to make sure the most accurate evidence is collected. The district determines the scope of the investigation.
- A letter from the Director of the Office of Assessment will be sent to the superintendent of the public school district, the sponsor for a community school or the head of school for a chartered nonpublic school for a case that is opened for a possible test security violation.

District Investigation Report

A district conducts an investigation when an alleged test security violation has been reported to the Department and the Department has determined that the alleged test security violation warrants an inquiry.
The district may take up to two weeks (or longer if necessary) to complete the investigation. Once the district investigation has been completed, an electronic and written investigation report is to be submitted to the Department. OAC 3301-13-05 (H)(2) requires the district investigation report to be filed with the Department within ten days after the completion of the district’s investigation.

Required investigation report content:

- Name(s) of the person(s) believed to be involved in the incident; include position(s) and title(s);
- Detailed description of the incident;
- Interviews and/or testimony (if students are interviewed, do not include student names – students may be identified as Student 1 Or A, Student 2 or B);
- Statement of evidence or statement of lack of evidence;
- District’s conclusion and disciplinary action if applicable; and
- Corrective plan of action.

The report should be submitted in written format electronically or hardcopy. Please send the electronic report to statetests@education.ohio.gov and the hardcopy report to this address:

Ohio Department of Education
Office of Assessment
25 S. Front Street MS 507
Columbus, Ohio 43215
Attn: Director of Assessment

Consequences

The investigation report will be reviewed by the Office of Assessment. If the report confirms there is not a test security violation, a letter will be sent to close the case with no further action by the Office of Assessment. If the report confirms there is a test security violation, a letter from the Office of Assessment to close the case may include a statement that the case will be shared with the Department’s Office of Professional Conduct. The Office of Assessment only has authority regarding the test. The Office of Professional Conduct has authority for school staff conduct. The Office of Professional Conduct will determine further action, which may include an additional investigation. Office of Professional Conduct-Statutes and Rules are available for review. Based on the result of the investigation, the State Board of Education, following appropriate procedures, may suspend a license, certificate or permit; and a law enforcement agency, following an appropriate investigation, may prosecute under the state criminal code.

If the district investigation determines that a violation occurred, the district authority may take several actions: one or more students’ tests may be invalidated; a district board of education, after appropriate procedures are followed, may suspend or terminate an employee found guilty of helping a student to cheat or found guilty of another type of test security violation.

Guidelines to Help Districts Document an Inquiry

Describe what occurred in the building or classroom during the test administration in the written report. These questions may help you in writing the report:

- Have you determined that state-mandated testing procedures were followed by all school staff?
- Have you interviewed all individuals who were involved in or may have information about the alleged incident?
- If you found evidence indicating an irregularity, have you described exactly what happened and why?
- If you found evidence indicating an irregularity; did you prepare a timeline, if necessary, to establish when events occurred?

If evidence or indication of a testing irregularity is discovered, appropriately document the testing irregularity. These questions may help you:

- Have you ensured that the report and any provided statements clearly lay out the sequence of events and explain exactly what happened?
• Have you received typed, signed and dated statements from all individuals who were involved in or may have information about the irregularity?
• Do all statements include the name and role (title) of all individuals involved (do not name students)?
• Do the statements include how the individuals were involved in the incident?
• Do the statements include a description of the incident from the individuals’ perspectives?

Guidelines to Help Districts Develop a Corrective Plan of Action

If evidence or indication of a testing irregularity is discovered, describe a plan to correct and mitigate any future occurrences of the testing irregularity. A corrective action plan must accompany the written investigation report. Here are some tips to help with preparing the plan:

• Does the plan include a description of the specific procedure(s) that will be implemented to help prevent future occurrences of this type of violation?
• Does the plan include the name and role (title) of the person(s) responsible to implement the plan?
• Have you submitted all statements in letter form on paper or letterhead? Are they typed, signed and dated?
• Have you submitted a final, written determination about what happened and who is responsible?

Procedure for Submitting an Invalidation

An invalidation occurs when a test has been compromised by a student, test administrator or unauthorized party to the test administration. A confirmed test security violation may require the district superintendent, school administrator or the district test coordinator to submit an invalidation of the test score. An inquiry may be required. There are two ways for a district to submit an invalidation:

• Submit the request to invalidate via the testing online system, TIDE. The student does not receive a score. The invalidation is also reported on the student data file sent back to the districts by the test vendor.
• Submit the invalidation directly through EMIS if the deadline was missed to submit the invalidation through the test vendor and the test was scored and reported back to the district by the test vendor. District should not use the family report of an invalidated test score.

Breach Form for Ohio’s State Tests

The breach form (a different but parallel form of the test) is intended to be used when a student’s test has been compromised by a test irregularity or a test security violation. The breach form applies only to the Ohio’s State Tests (OST).

• Grade 3-8 spring test administration only;
• High school fall and spring test administrations only.

District test coordinators must contact the Department’s Office of Assessment to determine whether a student qualifies to receive a breach form. The Office of Assessment determines if the use of the breach form is an appropriate option as a result of a district test security violation or a test irregularity. If a breach form is warranted, the Department will provide the district with the information needed to order the breach form.

Districts are advised to contact the Office of Assessment to discuss the situation that may lead to a breach form before an invalidation is entered. Student cheating does not qualify for a breach form. Test security violations or test irregularities caused by school or district personnel that require an administration of a breach form are at the district’s expense. Incidents that are caused by acts of nature or the state (the Department or the test contractor) and require an administration of a breach form are at the state’s or the vendor’s expense (for example, missing items).

Districts are required to administer the breach form in the same test mode that a student was administered the regular test. Students testing on paper are eligible for a paper breach form. Students testing online are eligible for an online breach form. Breach forms are not offered by test part. If a student is approved to take a breach form, the student must take both test parts of the breach form.

All breach tests are administered using the same guidelines, processes and procedures as the general test. If a student is approved to take a breach form, the district must:
• Submit a Test Status Request to invalidate the online test part(s); or
• Apply a Do-Not-Score label to the student’s scorable answer document if taken on paper and return with your nonscorable materials.

IMPORTANT: The district test coordinator must NOT take either action above before the breach request is reviewed and approved by the Department. All breach test administrations, online and paper, take place during a separate test window after the state test window has closed. There will be no modifications or extensions to the published breach test windows. All breach test administration scores are reported after on-time test results are reported.

Districts must retain scorable return labels to return breach paper test materials to the test vendor at the end of the breach test administration.

Standards for the Ethical Use of Tests

The State Board of Education has adopted rules of ethical practice for the use of state tests and other tests, such as district and school standardized tests. Tests shall include the test itself and any part of the process of assessing or testing a student. District and school personnel may reference OAC 3301-7-01 for standards concerning unethical or inappropriate practices that involve preparing students for tests, administering and scoring tests, and interpreting and/or using test results.

Additional Monitoring Procedures
The Department will continue to analyze results from tests to help ensure valid and fair results for students and districts. The Office of Assessment, with guidance from a group of national testing experts, uses a variety of commonly accepted statistical and audit procedures to review test score data and individual test documents for any anomalies that may be related to testing irregularities.

When anomalies appear in the data, districts may be contacted and asked to assist in reviewing and, if necessary, investigating the circumstances surrounding the anomalies. For instance, the audit procedures may identify highly unlikely patterns of responses for an individual student or between students in the same classroom or school. Also, specific patterns of erasures and other marks on scannable documents may be examined.

The Department will also audit vendor testing records to ensure appropriate test participation and test administration procedures are followed (for example, testing at appropriate grade levels and no inappropriate “double testing” of students). The Office of Assessment and its testing vendors will continue to monitor the prompt return of all secure test materials from each test administration by districts. Finally, the Office of Assessment may request permission from a district to observe and inspect test administration procedures in a building during a test window.

Additional Test Security Resources
The resources listed below are reference documents on test security.

- Code of Fair Testing Practices in Education
- Standards for Educational and Psychological Testing

On the following pages are resources for districts and schools to use during and after test administration. These resources include optional forms for district and school use, a non-disclosure form for translators, a scribe documentation form and complete texts of the Ohio Revised Code and Ohio Administrative Code that are applicable to the state test program. The optional forms for district and school use include:

- District Test Coordinator Agreement Form
- Building Test Coordinator Agreement Form
- Test Administrator Form.

Districts and schools may use the forms to document that the district test coordinator, building test coordinator and the test administrator are aware of and understands the district’s or school’s test security policy and all possible consequences and are aware of other resources regarding test security. While the forms are optional, the Department recommends using the forms to document the staff’s awareness of the district’s or school’s test security policy.

A non-disclosure form is required to be used to document that the translator understands the district’s or school’s test security policy, agrees not to disclose or discuss the contents of the secure tests and agrees that all student-specific information remains strictly confidential.

A scribe documentation form may be used to document that the student’s responses have been accurately transcribed to the test booklet or answer document.

Sections of the Ohio Revised Code and Ohio Administrative Code are included to provide the complete text of codes that are applicable to the state test program.

(1) Administer the Ohio graduation tests:
   (a) The administration for persons who may or may not have completed their high school requirements will be provided three opportunities during the school year to take any required Ohio graduation test for which a proficient score has not been obtained. The tests shall be administered in any order. Multiple tests may be administered on one day. The tests will be offered at sites approved by the department;
   (b) The testing window for the Ohio graduation tests will be established by the superintendent of public instruction by March first of each year and will be open continuously during the designated window with the exception of the month of August. The open testing window will be available beginning after July 1, 2018 and ending June of 2022; and
   (c) The time between administrations of the test for each person is at least 30 school days from the date the person has taken the test in the school year. Each person should receive or obtain targeted intervention services to make satisfactory progress toward passing the test.

(2) Administer the third-grade English language arts test on any day of the test administration period determined by the superintendent of public instruction, as required by section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code as follows:
   (a) The fall test administration period each school year shall last for a period not to exceed five consecutive school days, which includes the make-up testing period; and
   (b) The summer test administration period each school year shall be optional and shall last for a period not to exceed five consecutive school days. No intervention is required.
(3) Administer once annually in the spring with the test window determined by the superintendent of public instruction, as required by section 3301.0710 of the Revised Code, which shall last for a period not to exceed fifteen consecutive school days, including the make-up testing period. (5) Administer annually the alternate assessment at all grade levels and content areas to students with a significant cognitive disability. The superintendent of public instruction shall designate the test window for the administration of the alternate assessment.

(6) Administer annually the English language proficiency test to English learners in grades kindergarten through twelve. The superintendent of public instruction shall designate the test window for the administration of the English language proficiency test.

(B) All students shall take all state tests appropriate for their specified grade level during the designated test administration unless a student is excused from taking a test for one of the following reasons:

(1) A student scored at the proficient level on the English language arts test in grade three during the fall test window and a participating school has determined that the student is not required to take that test again during the spring administration. This does not, however, prohibit a student from taking the grade three English language arts test in the spring if the student and/or parent requests the student to participate in the test;

(2) A student is properly authorized to take an alternate assessment pursuant to section 3301.0711 of the Revised Code and rule 3301-13-03 or 3301-13-09 of the Administrative Code;

(3) A student has a serious medical emergency caused by circumstances beyond the participating school's control pursuant to section 3301.0711 of the Revised Code; or

The specific test requirements are based upon the number of years that the student has been enrolled in the acceleration program as follows:

(a) During the first year of a student's acceleration, for situations where no test exists at their accelerated-subject grade level, but a test does exist in that subject at their overall-grade level, it will be optional for the district to test the student.

(b) In any year other than the first year of a student's acceleration, for situations where no test exists at their accelerated-subject grade level, but a test does exist in that subject at their overall grade level, the district shall not test the student.

(C) Breach forms provided by the department may be administered at the sole discretion of the department in a limited number of situations. The district shall not use a breach form with any student involved in a potential cheating case. Test score results from the administration of a breach test form will be reported to the participating school at the individual, group and school level as deemed appropriate by the department. The following is a list of situations of test security violations or administration irregularities that warrant the use of the breach form. There may be other situations where the use of the breach form is appropriate and those shall be determined on a case by case basis by the department's office of curriculum and assessment and the district superintendent.
During each test administration, all tests shall be administered by each participating school in accordance with the provisions of this rule. Participating schools shall be followed explicitly by all appropriate staff and duties shall be to ensure that all test administration and test security provisions are met.

To facilitate the test administration at each grade, each school district and participating school shall annually submit to the department in writing a list of students who will have their scores invalidated for the content area for which the breach form is being used; the content area being invalidated, and the reason for the invalidation. The list must include all the relevant student information including their names or unique state identification code, and the school and district information code for those students who are not required to have a state identification code.

The department will notify the testing contractor of the need for the breach form and direct the testing contractor to send the required number of breach test forms and materials to the district test coordinator or district designee.

The participating school must administer the breach form in accordance with all established test administration procedures established by the department.

The breach test form administration shall occur within two weeks of the end of all scheduled test administration windows for the Ohio graduation tests, grades three through eight English language arts, mathematics and science, and the end-of-course high school tests; and

All tests and test materials must be returned to the site designated by the department.

There shall be no breach form administered for the fall administration of the third grade English language arts test or the spring administration of the Ohio English language proficiency assessment.

The cost of administering the breach tests shall be shared by the department and the participating school when test security violations occur in accordance with rule 3301-13-02 of the Administrative Code.

To facilitate the test administration at each grade, each school district and participating school shall annually appoint one named person in a school district and one person in each building, as the case may be, whose duties shall be to ensure that all test administration and test security provisions included in Chapters 3301-13 and 3301-7 of the Administrative Code and all testing procedures adopted by the department and by a participating school are followed explicitly by all appropriate staff. In addition, each participating school shall appoint enough test administrators and monitors to satisfy the provisions of this rule.

During each test administration, all tests shall be administered by each participating school in accordance with the following provisions:

1. All tests and answer documents shall be considered secure and subject to the provisions of rule 3301-13-05 of the Administrative Code and section 3319.151 of the Revised Code;

2. All test administration rooms shall be selected such that test security provisions can be ensured while student comfort is maximized;

(5) When the number of students taking any test in an assigned testing room exceeds thirty, additional staff and/or adult volunteers shall be assigned as test monitors to that room to ensure that the ratio does not exceed thirty students to one test administrator/monitor at any time in any test administration room. The test monitor is not required to meet the criteria stated in this rule. A student may not serve as a test monitor; and

(6) The test administrator and all test monitors assigned to a testing room shall be informed of, and agree to follow, all prescribed test administration and test security provisions. Test administrators and test monitors shall remain in the assigned testing room during the entire administration of any test to assure that security is maintained.

(K) Upon receipt of a written request by a school district superintendent, head administrator or designee with evidence that a participating school has experienced an emergency interruption of the school schedule by events beyond the control of the school that will not permit the designated test window stated this in this rule, the state superintendent of public instruction may approve a modified testing schedule that permits testing to be completed in accordance with the provisions of this chapter.

(L) Any student in grades three through eight, who was retained in the same grade level from one school year to the next school year, shall take the state tests as specified in this rule for the grade level in which the student currently is enrolled, regardless of any score previously received by a student on any such test during a prior school year.

(M) In addition to section 3301.0714 of the Revised Code and Chapter 3301-14 of the Administrative Code, each participating school shall keep records for each student including the following:

5. If intervention must be provided; and
6. An indication the student has met all high school graduation requirements.

(N) When a student who has taken tests administered pursuant to this rule in a participating school leaves that school to enroll in another participating school, the previously attended school shall provide, immediately upon request by a school official from the enrolling school, all applicable records specified in paragraph (M) of this rule.

(O) Any school district, community school, or chartered nonpublic school with territory in a joint vocational school district may enter into an agreement with the joint vocational school district for the joint vocational school district to administer any test prescribed in this rule provided that any such test administration is conducted in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and under the direction of the school district and building testing coordinators. For any student who enrolls at a joint vocational school, the school previously attended shall provide up-to-date records, as specified in paragraph (M) of this rule, to the joint vocational school. For any student who takes tests required for graduation at a joint vocational school, that joint vocational school shall provide such records, as specified in paragraph (M) of this rule to the high school from which the student will receive a diploma.

(P) Each joint vocational school district shall administer the state tests under the direction of the school district and building test coordinators identified in accordance with this rule.

(Q) Any correctional or penal institution that maintains a chartered high school serving residents or nonresidents shall administer state tests in accordance with this chapter of the Administrative Code.

(R) A student who has been excused from attendance at school for the purpose of home instruction under section 3321.04 of the Revised Code is not required to take state tests. However, both the participating school and the student's parent may mutually agree to allow the student to take any of the state tests. The state tests must be taken under the same rules and procedures as students enrolled in the participating school. If a home-school student is enrolled in a participating school for a course in which there is a state test, the student is required to take that state test. The school district will not issue a high school diploma to a part-time enrolled home school student.

(S) A student who attends a nonchartered nonpublic school is not required to take state tests. However, both the participating school and the nonchartered nonpublic school, or the student’s parents may mutually agree to allow the student to take any of the state tests. The tests must be taken under the same rules and procedures as students enrolled in the participating school, with the participating school ultimately making the final decision.

(A) These standards of ethical test practice shall be used in determining if a practice related to a test is consistent with the principles of performing one's duties with honesty, integrity, due care, fairness to all, ensuring the integrity of the test process, and the reliability and validity of any inference made from any result of a test. Except as otherwise specified, the following definitions shall be used in this rule:

Test shall also include district and school standardized tests including norm referenced tests. Test shall include the test instrument itself and any part of the process of assessing or testing a student.

2. "Secure test" shall include any test, whether state or national, that is administered to the entire or a portion of the entire state student population and/or that is provided by the state, the results of which are included in Ohio's accountability system, are included as part of a student's course of study, are part of the pre-college admission process, or are required by state and/or federal law. Secure tests shall be treated as secure materials until released by the test developer and/or the department. They do not include any diagnostic test required to be administered pursuant to section 3301.0715 of the Revised Code, any practice test, or any test that already has been released to the public by the test developer or by the department as a public record following the school year that the test was administered.

4. Clearly define and communicate in writing to all appropriate staff at least once annually all security procedures established by a participating school for each type of secure test identified in paragraph (A) of this rule, which shall include, but not be limited to, the test security provisions required by rule 3301.13-05 of the Administrative Code and the test security guidelines in the "Ohio's State Tests Rules Book";

(9) Establish written procedures for investigating any complaint, allegation, and/or concern about an unethical and/or inappropriate practice, ensuring protection of the rights of an individual, the integrity of a test, and any result of a test.

(C) In monitoring practices related to preparing students for a test, each participating school shall use, but not be limited to, the following standards that define the types of practices that are unethical and/or inappropriate:

(2) Any practice involving the reproduction of any secure test materials, through any medium, for use in preparing a student for a test;

(3) Any preparation activity that includes a question, task, graph, chart, passage, or other material included in a test, and/or material that is a paraphrase or highly similar in content to what is in a test (does not include practice tests developed by the department);

(5) Any preparation practice that does not comply with, or has the appearance of not complying with any statutory and/or regulatory provision related to security of a test; and

(6) Any practice that supports or assists others in conducting unethical or inappropriate preparation activities.

(4) Any practice that allows a person without sufficient and appropriate knowledge, skills, and/or training to administer and/or score a test;

(5) Any administration and/or scoring practice that may produce a result contaminated by a factor not relevant to the purpose(s) of a test;

(6) Any practice of excluding one or more students from a test solely because a student has not performed well, or may not perform well, on the test and/or because the aggregate performance of a group may be affected;

(7) Any practice immediately preceding and/or during a test including, but not limited to, the use of a gesture, facial expression, body language, tone of voice, language, or any other action and/or sound that may guide a students' response;

(8) Except for the directions for administration as prescribed by the test developer and/or by the department, any practice such as providing to a student, immediately preceding and/or during administration of a test, any definition and/or clarification of the meaning of a word or term contained in a test;

(9) Any practice that corrects or alters any student's response to a test either during and/or following the administration and/or scoring of a test; and
(10) Any practice that supports or assists any person in unethical and/or inappropriate practices during administration and/or scoring of a test.

(E) In monitoring practices related to interpreting and/or using any result of a test, each participating school shall use, but not be limited to, the following standards that define the types of practices that are unethical and/or inappropriate:

1. Providing interpretations of and/or using any result of a test in a manner and/or for a purpose that was not intended;
2. Making false, misleading, or inappropriate statements and/or unsubstantiated claims that may lead to false and/or misleading conclusions about any result of a test;
3. Any practice that permits appropriate staff without the necessary knowledge and skills to interpret and/or use any result of a test;
4. Any practice that violates, or places at risk, the confidentiality of personally identifiable information pursuant to section 3319.321 of the Revised Code;
5. Any practice that provides an interpretation or suggests a use of any result of a test without due consideration of the purpose(s) for the test, the limitations of the test, an examinee's characteristics, any irregularities in administering and/or scoring the test, and/or other factors that may affect any result; and
6. Any practice that supports or leads any person to interpret and/or use any result of a test in unethical and/or inappropriate ways.
